THE POLITICS OF FOLK CULTURE

INTRODUCTION: THE POLITICS OF FOLK CULTURE IN THE LUSOPHONE WORLD

Custom and Costume at a Late 1950s Marian Shrine in Northwestern Portugal

Masks, Performance and Tradition: Local Identities and Global Contexts

Emergent Iconographies: Regional Identity and Rural Icons in Northwestern Iberia

Pride, Prejudice and Politics: Performing Portuguese Folklore Amid Newark’s Urban Renaissance

Performing Portugalness in Germany

Popular Music and Cultural Identity in the Cape Verdean Post-Colonial Diaspora

Being Portuguese in Malacca: The Politics of Folk Culture in Malaysia

“We Are Azorean”: Discourses and Practices of Folk Culture in Santa Catarina (Brazil)

Andrea Klimt and João Leal

João Vasconcelos

Paulo Raposo

António Medeiros

Kimberly DaCosta Holton

Andrea Klimt

Timothy Sieber

Margaret Sarkissian

João Leal

Regina Bendix